The following articles were taken from "The Commercial," a local paper edited by C.R. Pattison.

April 4 - PROHIBITION - . . . Shall the State be disgraced in the eyes of the world by the triumph of this drunkard making business? If the conscience, or good sense, or honor of the State speaks, prohibition will be carried by an overwhelming majority . . .

April 11 - ELECTION RETURNS - The State has gone easily 25,000 against the Constitution. Prohibition probably a small majority Four towns only went for the Constitution - Ann Arbor Town, Ypsilanti Town, Pittsfield and Salem.

ELECTION RETURNS IN THE CITY: Mayor, Hiram Batchelder 465, Parmenio Davis 507 - City Clerk, S.C. Noble 447, J.W. Babbitt 520.

April 18 - THE CONSTITUTION is buried by nearly 40,000 majority . . . Three months from now a majority of the voters who voted against it will regret their votes . . . Already the Circuit Judges in two of the districts have declared their intention to resign . . . Men who can get in their profession from $3,000 to $5,000 a year, are not going to work for $1,500 . . .
